++ Valid for broadcast between 0600 and 1800

Headline:
Mostly dry but cloudy.

Today:
Overnight rain clears the east coast around dawn. Then a rather cloudy day, but mostly dry with just a few spots of light rain. Some bright spells will develop in the afternoon away from the northeast. Maximum temperature 10 deg C (50 deg F).

Tonight:
A mostly cloudy but dry evening and night. However, a few clear spells are possible. Light southwest winds. Chilly where any prolonged clear spells form. Minimum temperature 2 deg C (36 deg F).

Tuesday:
Remaining largely cloudy with the best of any brighter spells across Moray. Dry for most but some patchy drizzle is likely across southern Aberdeenshire. Strong winds and rain overnight. Maximum temperature 11 deg C (52 deg F).

Outlook for Wednesday to Friday:
Mostly dry, bright and breezy for the next few days, but patchy rain at times in the west on Wednesday, and showers Thursday and Friday, wintery on high ground.
